

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

JNO. D. AND V. G. BABBAGE, Editors and Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1899.

SIX PAGES.

WHAT FORBIDS US FROM TELLING THE TRUTH DAILY?

Temper Aged.
A few years ago we boasted that the News was twenty-one years old and able to take care of itself. Today we call attention to the fact that this edition is the last number of the twenty-third volume and tomorrow the News starts on the twenty-fourth year of its existence, and is still able to take care of itself.

Have you noticed, dear reader, that there is something paradoxical about this paper. Of course you have. You are overbearing enough to realize that the older it grows the younger it gets.

Look over the news pages today. Notice how well every corner of this paper's peculiar ballistics has been covered. See the items from Hartford, from Louisville, from Lexington, from Brandenburg, from every town and hamlet of Breckinridge county. Rarely for a county paper the News is extensive. It must have the energy of youth, the vitality, the buoyancy of manhood's dawn to do its work so well.

That is the secret of the paper's success. Its vigorous manhood. It realizes that its 2,500 subscribers are the best people on earth—that they admire energy, courage, stamina and patriotism. Sometimes our subscribers tell us so. For instance there is Jefferson Ballow, of Stephenson. He takes the trouble to sit down and put $1 or $2 in an envelope to send us in payment for subscription. Then he does something nicer than that, he writes a note to accompany it and the note reads this way:

"John Babbage—I find you are a gentleman and that you have got a lot of reason about you. You print a good county paper and you will always find a sale for it. I believe you have done more for the county than a great many law makers have done. If anything important comes up you unravel it for me. I can see you are a useful man."

That letter said as a heap of good. We appreciated it more than we would precious jewels or the gold. It reminded us of the truth of what General Ogle said there is more to live for in this world than money.

Sometimes though we are taken off our high horse. When we have backhanded enough to say "The News believes in this and so" and that "this and so" is different from the belief of some of our subscribers one of them says: "John Babbage—I take my pen in hand to write these few lines to tell you that you committed the crime of 1873—you and that old Benedict Arnold named John Sherman. Stop my paper!"

It makes that subscriber feel good. He thinks he has "scotched" us. Feels like a old miser that has foreclosed a mortgage on the homestead of an enemy. Feels that he has busted the paper and that we can't get along without his support—but say readers we get fat on that kind of thing. It makes our friends stick closer to us and sometimes we collect money on subscriptions that would otherwise go to the loss side of the ledger.

Well, the News would rather be right than be president. It would rather be the best county paper in the state than be a hide-bound party organ. It's got the salt of the earth as its constituency. It's only twenty-four years old and has a long time yet in which to preach God and morality.

A GREAT OFFER.

Terms: From Now to December, 1902, Nearly Five Years.
By special arrangement made with the publishers of the Farm Journal we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for the BRECKENRIDGE News one year ahead, for only $1, both papers for the price of one only; our paper one year and the Farm Journal from now to December, 1902, nearly five years. The Farm Journal is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

The newspaper is the walking delegate of civilization.

Good roads and the school teachers are the greatest civilizers.

The Hobson bug has not yet hit Cloverport. Sing the doxology.

Good men, like good girls are most appreciated when they become sales.

A communication from T. B. Henderson will appear in this paper next week.

Cloverport has a citizen who has decided to name his baby March because he murders sleep.

The United Christian party has been organized in Iowa. It is devoted to a short existence. The good die young.

This knowledge that cyclones can be averted by shooting at them, comes too late to be of any use to Captain Stone.

Between Goebel's diabolical grin and the hoodoo of being nominated on the Blk. it strikes us that Taylor is better off, he drives and the deep sea.

The Arkansas boys who lynched a man the other day, seem to be of the opinion that that their was the most brilliant neck-tie party of the season.

Philologists say that the older a man gets the smaller his brain becomes. He explains why the young men know everything and the old men nothing.

Cloverport has one citizen who is a real dog fancier. Last week he wrote a Louisville dog dealer and inquired the price of a pair of ocean gray hounds.

The Morganfield firm is conducting a sting contest to determine who is the best popular young man in Union county. We cast a million votes for Charley Earl.

Tulaco, O., has a man ninety years old who has never seen a dead person. If he will take a run down to Kuttawa, Ky., he can see the political corpse of Capt. J. J. Stone.

In the controversy between Austro-Serbian and this country over the vicissitudes of the Russian riots, your Uncle Sam is the late George Follman. No nothing to arbitrate.

is the independent voter within the party. When it is said that they then do some thinking for themselves, and there is a limit to the leading of political bosses, they will look better to their selections for public office. I hope the Republicans of the state will rise to the occasion, and put a ticket that will commend itself on well respected voters of the state. I wish you success in your efforts for good citizenship and good roads in Breckinridge. I hope to visit the old haunts sometime next month.

Sincerely Yours,
R. C. BAYNE.

WELL! WELL! WELL!!!
OWENSBORO, Ky., May 20th.—I see from your issue of the 12th, a notice of the completion of Mr. R. N. Hudson's up-to-date residence wherein you gave him all the credit. Now Mr. Hudson is a builder of railroads, not an architect. I claim all the credit of plans and specifications of the above mentioned residence and if my reputation as an architect was not so well known, I think I will have a good and just cause for action against your paper for damage. Until existing circumstances will ever look the slightest this but in future please be a little more cautious in making assertions.

Yours truly,
G. L. APPLEGATE.

We humbly beg Mr. Applegate's pardon. We acknowledge that he is the running mate of Billy Hohenlohe and that is the most versatile case alive, with the exception of the German Emperor, and we make the exception for fear of being jailed for lese majeste. Certainly Mr. Applegate designed Mr. Hudson's house.

At the town of Hohenlohe built the pyramid of Cheops, the tower of Babel, the Colosseum of Rhodes, the Chinese Wall and planted the hanging gardens of Babylon in Sumac in order to supply raw material for an infant industry in Tyre before the flood.

Mr. Hudson has no rights that Mr. Applegate is bound to respect. He has no money that Mr. Applegate cannot appropriate. Talk about Goebel! why Cary Applegate can hog things with more grace than Goebel will ever dare to even if he has a thousand years to do so. Say, "you man that looks like the man who fires telegraph wires" and I can damn you, see!

CAN RAY 'EM RAY.

Editor News, The Cloverport ball team says it can wipe up Hardinsburg club in a "jiffy."

S. N. Hall, Mgr.

Delightful Event.
At the town of Hohenlohe on Wednesday evening a supper was given at the lake in honor of Miss Florence Cottrell, the charming guest of Miss Alice Baker. Miss Margaret Skillman, Miss Alice Simmons and Company, of Owensboro, and Messrs. James Skillman and Jesse Willis joined the crowd at the lake. A delightful lunch was served at 2:30 and the crowd strolled around the grounds until 9 o'clock and then a number of the party, Misses Cottrell, Baker, Simmons, Tompcox, and Skillman; Messrs. Willis, Skillman, Herbert and Harold Beard, Dr. John and Lewis Kinchloe were entertained at the home of Dr. A. M. Kinchloe by the attractive Miss Mary L. Smith until the wee hours of the night. Music was furnished by Miss Cottrell and Messrs. Willis and Kinchloe.

Deacons Make a Record.
Pelville Baptist church can beat any church on deacons. They are H. D. Bruner, Walter McKeith, W. Spencer and William Powers. Last May H. D. Bruner's wife presented him with a fine boy. In the same month Walter McKeith's wife presented him with a girl. Last Thursday night Deacon William Powers' wife presented him with a nine pound girl, and on last Friday evening Miss W. W. Spencer's wife presented him with a ten pound boy. Now if there is another church in the state which can beat this for energetic deacons let's hear from it.

Weak Eyes Are Made Strong
dim vision made clear, eyes removed and granulated lids or sore eyes of any kind speedily and effectually cured by the use of Butcher's Eagle Eye Salve. It's put up in tubes, sold on a guarantee by all good druggists.

Enthusiastic Meeting.
The members of the W. O. T. U. held a most enthusiastic meeting Monday evening at the M. E. Church in this city. The next meeting will take place Monday night at the Baptist church. All are invited.

Attention Democrats.
There will be a meeting of the democratic county committee at Hardinsburg, Ohio Brown's office, at 1:30 p. m., Monday July 24th. All Democrats are invited to attend. James Whitworth, Ch'nan.

He's a Great Fan.
Emil Nolte went to Louisville last week to look up the Colomela. He took Dreyfus aside and after giving him some good advice, he got hold of the team and read it the riot act. As a result the Louisville have been playing winning ball and are now on the high road to the first division. Emil returned Monday night well satisfied with his work.

Successful Traveling Man.
Mr. Charles McKel, traveling representative of Carter Dry Goods Co., of Louisville, has reached this city with a full load. Mr. McKel has a reputation of being one of the most successful commercial men on the road. His trade this year is something enormous.

A Dutch Supper.
At Dr. A. M. Kinchloe's, several of the young men, Mercer, Board, Bowmer, Dr. J. E. and Lewis Kinchloe, gave a Dutch supper in honor of Miss Florence Cottrell. The young ladies present were, Misses Baker, Gardner and Smith.

Died at Lakeland.
James Ezeton, an old resident of this town who was committed to the Lakeland Insane asylum last year because of his vagaries, died in the asylum at Lakeland, N. C., at 8:55. He remains will be interred at the asylum cemetery.

STOP HERE!
It is a fact that you will find no other place where you can get so much for so little money as at the STOP HERE! store. We have a large stock of goods at low prices. We are open every day from 10 o'clock to 10 o'clock. We are at the corner of Main and Second streets, Louisville, Ky.

Severely Injured.
Of Mattingly, while engaged at the Cornwell stone quarry, was killed and severely bruised last week and as a result of his injuries has been laid up.

WHITES CREAM VERMIFUGE
not only effectually expels worms, but is unequalled as a tonic, and is a certain and permanent cure for Chills and Fevers in children. Price 75 cts.—A. B. Fisher.

BATTLETOWN.
A glorious fall here last Sunday. Mr. Blake went to Brandenburg Thursday.

James and Grace Thompson each lost a horse last week.

Miss Edie Haynes is spending the week with Mr. Millie Daily.

D. C. Thompson and son, were in Brandenburg one day last week.

Miss Blodette Kinchloe is in an unconscious condition with spinal meningitis.

Miss Wilma Haynes is spending the week with Mr. J. H. Bennett, at Rock City.

Payton Brown and Wm. Chalm, have contracted to do the hauling for the new saw mill at Liberty.

Mrs. Precious Pecknough and Martha Chalm, of Lexington, visited Mrs. Jane Bennett Friday.

J. F. Green is thrashing in the neighborhood.

STEPHENSPORT

Mrs. J. Stiles has a new organ.

Charles Moore was in town Friday.

Summer boarders still come to the "Smith House".

Several from Union Hill, attended church here Sunday.

There will be an ice cream supper at Rome, Ind., Friday evening.

Don't forget the "Deestrick Skule" Sunday the 22nd, in City Hall.

Misses Blanche Gay Mowley and Mary Allen went to Holt Saturday.

Miss Bessie Hargis, of Indiana, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Marion Thomas.

Had a light shower here Sunday, but more rain is needed in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sargent, of Fordville, are here for a week with relatives.

Misses Kate and Mary Allen spent several days last week with Mrs. F. C. Ferry.

The "Deestrick Skule" for the benefit of the Baptist church, will be given Saturday night the 22nd.

Forest Blain and Charley Hanks have enlisted in the U. S. A., and are now in training at Ft. Thomas.

Mr. John Wright is here from the south, to spend the summer with his sister, Mrs. Bettie Napper.

Mrs. Rosa Morgan Irving, wife of John Irving, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan, died at her home in the Haven Monday, the 10th and was buried here the 11th. Services were held in the Baptist church by her pastor, Z. Ferrell. The deceased leaves a husband parents and brothers, a few months old, to always feel the need of a mother's love and care, besides a host of friends to miss her and sympathize with the family.

The "Deestrick Skule" that will be played at City Hall, Saturday the 22nd will be one of the very best plays for years. It consists of morning sessions, "Skule" and "Skule" and follows the afternoon "exhibition," which is composed of pieces, compositions and songs by the scholars, and an address by the principal, and a very "touching" presentation of the "Mars" from the pen of Mr. Honey-ackle, the "Ma" of two pairs of twins, the "Giggles" and the crying girls, stuttering, limping scholars, and Ezekiel, our own little baby, just four years old, and other characters too numerous to mention and make this play full of fun and merriment. The characters are represented by grown folk dressed as "skule" children of 50 years ago. You can afford to miss this, so come Saturday the 22nd, at City Hall, Stephensport, Admission 15 cents. Children 12 years and under, 10 cents.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the surprise of Anne R. Springer, of 1125, Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but when she tried this Royal Cure, "It soon relieved the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption at the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price $5.00 and $10.00. Trial bottle free at R. H. Hayes' drug store: every bottle guaranteed.

IRVINGTON.

Miss Anna Hawes, of Cincinnati, O., is visiting her brother R. E. Hawes.

Chapman's Watson and family, of Owensboro, are visiting Mrs. W. H. Sargent.

Mrs. Mary is a talented young lady, having been in the office of the "Bureau of the State."

Miss Irma Gordon, a bright, sweet girl from New Albany, will return to her home in the office of the "Bureau of the State."

How much happier we all would be if we could remember the old Mexican proverb: "A tongue may indicate a deep or wound in a sword."

Mrs. J. H. Lennin was visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Boeler, near Kirk, last week.

The young ladies in all men's and boys' clothing—Green Flag Bargain store, Hardinsburg, Ky.

Well, anyhow, we are going to have a new Catholic church. That shows some people's enterprise.

There has been a prisoner in the county jail for nearly six months. It's a dead pile of property.

Roberts and Coker are getting up a handsome illustrated thirty-page catalogue of goods, and are now in the city.

Dr. Tom Gardner Superintendent of the Hopkinton asylum, was here a few days last week visiting his home.

The young ladies of the M. E. church will give an ice cream social in the court house yard, Thursday evening, July 27.

A Cleveland lady threatens to sue her husband for divorce, because he moves so loud he can be heard on the river front.

Dr. Rindow, whose profession as a dentist cannot be found in these parts, will be in Hardinsburg on professional business Monday.

Ladies' retail waist, blue, pink and white, worth from 75c to $1, our price now 40c to 75c—Green Flag Bargain store, Hardinsburg, Ky.

17 lb. granulated sugar, for $1, 18 lb. brown sugar for $1, Coffee 10c per package, soda 12c, for 50c—Green Flag Bargain store, Hardinsburg, Ky.

The Hardinsburg young society folks gave a big lunch down at the lake one evening last week. They were joined by several parties from Cloverport.

Fancy and light calicoes 4 cts. per yard. Cashmere and wools from 12 1/2 cts. per yard, up to Green Flag Bargain store, Hardinsburg, Ky.

A nice lot of men's and boys' Sunday percale shirts; 50c each; 30c, 5 cts. a pair; Sundries, 10 cts. apiece—Green Flag Bargain store, Hardinsburg, Ky.

Sheriff Burton and Dolph Board picked up two fellows out at Harrod's station last week who were peddling moonshine whiskey. They were taken to Owensboro.

Dentists Board and Walker have opened and furnished a handsome dental office on upper Court Main street. They are reliable home men and deserve your patronage.

The friends, in this community, of Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Louisville, were sorry to hear of the death of their infant baby last week. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beard were the parents.

A warrant was sworn out here last week against some young fellows in the county for playing ball on Sunday. There seems to be no statute directly on the subject, it is evidently a violation of the law. Sunday baseball is becoming too frequent in the country, however, and those who regard the sanctity of the Sabbath would be glad to see it broken up.

BRANDENBURG.

The "Illustrated Kenticuckian" published in Louisville—Miss Nettie Schenck has taken the agency.

George H. Yenowise was on the Courier-Journal staff and we all know his force, ability and versatility as a writer.

The "Illustrated Kenticuckian" is gotten up with brilliancy and effort, no doubt.

Miss Nettie Schenck, who is a young lady of culture, refinement and true womanliness, will succeed in introducing this monthly paper in our midst.

The Breckenridge News came out in a splendid new dress, containing a lot of material last week, telling why it could not and would not accept the candidacy of William Gosholt. I tell you it was a strong, fairly good reason, so to speak.

I haven't read any "flier" even in the Louisville Evening Post. For, in one, an excessively proud of it. I do like to see a man or a paper have the courage of conviction and then not afraid to express it, if conscientious in the belief.

The question arises, "was Gosholt nominated by a Democratic convention?"

Miss Agnes Mullen is now likely to be up. She will be with Mr. Gough, who she is long—always up and going with Agnes. She is up-to-date in all municipal matters and is devoted to her calling.

She is content for the independent Catholic church in Owensboro, and to be organized in such a church and for such a choir means a musician of ability. She is a Schubert Mass, of which much is expected time, but Mr. Gough, who she has been much complimented in the rendition—I am glad she is where her talent is appreciated and that she will continue a good singer.

I want to join the editor of this paper in the request that Mrs. W. J. Pigott write often for the News. Her paper, "The Land of the Don," as a review of a recent reading of the R. V. E. O. which appeared in last issue was a masterly production. Mrs. Pigott says, "We do not believe because we have endeavored to enlarge our sphere, had increased our mental activities, that we have become less capable wifely and mothers." Would that she could herald that noble sentiment to every woman in the land. Why should we give and ourselves every day and study to broaden and expand their minds and thus fit themselves to better fill the honored positions held by them as wives and mothers? She says again, "Why should we waste diaries if we need the sublime rhythm of the Iliad or Odyssey make music in our minds?" Yes, I like my talented friend, Mrs. Pigott, should like to know why a woman's culinary duties, her responsibilities as mother or wife should deprive her from a realm where she meets and mingles with lofty ideals and drinks in the purest of Truth and Beauty. A woman like Mrs. W. J. Pigott is an inspiration to a whole community when she is appreciated. I think that Mrs. Pigott's ability for there we find many bright minds grasping and clutching for all the strands of information bound to them on a sea of knowledge. Bewleyville has a number of such women. Mrs. W. J. Pigott is a woman whose wisdom and talent are paramount to the diking of the body. God speed them in a good work!

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and it was more than a year ago that we were told to try Dr. R. E. O. All this time we have advertised your meritorious remedy—G. M. Way, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by A. F. Fisher, Cloverport; R. A. Shellman, Stephensport.

GUSTON.

Mrs. Louis Morningway, of Louisville, is visiting her brothers, Jim and Sperry O'Brien.

The Rev. Adairman Willett, wife and little daughter, from Cape Girardeau, Missouri, are visiting relatives near here.

The Rev. Alexander Whitehitting and wife, of Louisville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Shain and others of this vicinity.

Henry Mills has sold one more harvest machine than all the rest of the agents in the county together. He has sold 30 machines.

Henry Yontler and wife from near Paynesville visited Dr. Baxter and family. Mr. Yontler stopped off here on his way home from the Lexington Convention.

The music and singing at the Mount Merino dedication last Sabbath was indeed grand not to say anything about the cordiality and hospitality that was extended to all who were there.

Messrs. Herbert Beard and Louis Kinceloh, two of Hardinsburg's most promising young men, were visiting two of Breckenridge's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies, Mrs. C. O. and Bessie Lewis, who are visiting their grandfather, R. J. Patterson.

A farmer who lives just over the line in Breckenridge county has just cut and stacked 30 bushels of corn on 10 acres of land, making a yield of one bushel per acre. There is not much property in that wheat crop. Even the crops are showing the pressure of the drought.

One of the delegates to the late Republican convention at Lexington remarked after his return that he hadn't seen anything extra in the quality of the blue grass in that region, and seemed to feel very much disappointed in what he had always heard of that country. So I told him not to mourn over it, for although this is called the "Bluegrass" district we could raise blue grass here if the people would just keep the plow out of the ground long enough to give it a showing.

Then showed him a bunch of blue grass that was grown in the same field, but measured by the same line 37 inches long. If any man believes this I will turn the bunch of grass if he will prove the opposite.

BRANDENBURG.

While the people have been talking "Farmers' Institute," and writing on "Intensifying Farming" and the like, one of the representatives of the Breckenridge News asked me if I couldn't contribute something in that line. And my answer is no, for I don't think it is what the farmer has no market or what he is going to do, that is the confronting problem with him. But where the secret lies, is in being able to demand a profit or to sell a reasonable price on what he raises.

The farmer has no market or what he is going to do, that is the confronting problem with him. But where the secret lies, is in being able to demand a profit or to sell a reasonable price on what he raises.
